

SEARCH BY SYMPTOM

General Information

If you prefer to search by symptom, use the symptom checker tool from the American Academy of Pediatrics. Follow the link below, click on the body part associated with the symptom(s) of interest, and select the appropriate topic.

If you are prompted for a username and password, click cancel, and you should be directed to the website.

For a list of symptoms that may indicate a serious problem that requires immediate attention, follow the Emergency symptoms NOT to miss link.
