

Donate Surplus Food to Stop Hunger

Nearly 5 million people in California struggle with food insecurity. Permitted food facilities can help by donating their surplus wholesome food to local non-profit or charitable hunger-relief groups

WHAT YOU CAN DONATE

Prepared foods and meals that haven't been served to consumers, as well as uncooked pre-packaged food products, such as canned foods.

WHO YOU CAN DONATE TO

Nonprofit or charitable organizations that store food on-site and are familiar with safe food-handling requirements.

LEGAL PROTECTION

The California Good Samaritan Food Donation Act (AB 1219) provides liability protections for food businesses that make good faith donations of surplus food.
